Revelation 10

"What Is That Bitter-Belly-Making Little Book?"

[1] And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: [2] And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth, [3] And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices. [4] And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. 5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, 6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer: 7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets. [8] And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. [9] And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. [10] And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. [11] And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

This is one passage on which to think and to meditate. Sure, we could read someone's commentary.
We could try to find how one person or another decided to interpret it and how those interpretations may be similar or may differ. We may even already fully understand what this means—or at least think we do. But for me, I have to read, re-read, perhaps listen to it through an audio Bible program or in various Bible versions or even in other languages.

More importantly, I will want to continue to listen to the Holy Spirit to fully comprehend, ingest, and appreciate this passage. The book of Revelation is too much of a mystery with too many layers for anyone to think we fully comprehend

every part of it.
There's always room
for expansion and
depth.

There is a song
about the book of Revelation
with the following

applicable lyrics:

I think I'll read it
again
and see how high
I can fly.
I think I'll read it
again of how my feet
are gonna'
rise. I think I'll read it again – the mighty
book of Revelation…
I think I'll read it
again

and let it bless
my soul.

I must certainly read it again, and
again,
and again… to better absorb Revelation 10
and all it means—
including that little book which is capable of making
